

mY iDEAL rOLE

It can be hard to pin down exactly what we want from a new job. If you're looking to make a change, but aren't sure what role would best suit you, try responding to the below questions. Then, think about what roles align with your responses and list them over the page, selecting the most appealing one as your 'ideal role'. Finally, look for three actual opportunities that you can apply for today!

My skills

What are you good at? What are your strengths, qualities or experiences? What areas are you an expert in? What are you the go-to person for?

My passions

What are you passionate about? What has brought you the most fulfilment? When are you most 'in the zone'? What excites you?

My wants

What do you really want out of your work? What's important to you? What can it bring you? Where might it take you?

Roles that combine my skills, passions & wants

My ideal role is...

Opportunities

Company

Position

Contact

Website

Applied?